CONTINUOUS VAUDEVILLE FEATURES COUNTY FAIR

Y. W. C. A. Second Annual Event To Have Shooting Match, One-Act Playlets, Pink Lemonade, and Jazz Dance Music For Throng's Entertainment.

Continuous vaudeville will be the feature of the second big Country Fair to be held in the Chapel, building 4, Friday evening, November 23. Under the general supervision of the Y. W. C. A. girls the old fashioned fair will be combined with the dancing, singing and regular stunts of circus and vaudeville to make it the big event of the week.

One of the best attractions of the evening will be Miss Smith, a regular performer from the Keith circuit, who will impersonate prominent women.

Scattered through the different rooms of the building will be other and more mysterious events. In one a shooting match will be conducted under the supervision of Walter Stokes, world rifle champion; in another, a swimming meet. In dimly lit nooks, dusky maidens with starry eyes will read the lines of hands entrusted to them, and if the future disclosed by the palmist isn't as fair and pleasing as you want it, another, perhaps more alluring and vivacious fortune teller, will be willing to disclose by cards a different vision of what is to be.

In the course of the evening, a group of daring adventurers will be taken for a trip around the world. All that will be necessary is a passport, without which one might be left stranded on the top of some high mountain, or in some dark Oriental nook, or even lost in the depths of Indian jungles.

And on the first floor, room 1, two one-act plays will be presented, "Rather Rough on Robert" and "A Matter of Husbands."

But the evening wouldn't be complete without its pink lemonade, sandwiches, and hot dogs, so the sorority girls will conduct booths in the Chapel to furnish the cake, ice cream, and candy, together with all the old fashioned refreshments popular at the old fashioned Country Fair.

Beginning at ten thirty, the Freshman Orchestra will furnish regular jazz for a real dance. The dance will conclude the events in the Chapel.

Admission to the Chapel is ten cents; for the other events, come and find out.

G. W. TO SEND DELEGATES TO STUDENT CONFERENCE

The world's greatest Student Christian Conference will be held this winter, December 28 to January 1, in Indianapolis. This conference is held once every four years under the auspices of the Student Volunteer Movement. Their object is to bring together the Christian leaders of the world to meet with representatives from the student bodies of the American and Canadian universities.

This winter's conference is being backed, not only by the Student Volunteer Movement, but also by the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A., and the Foreign Mission Boards of all Denominations. The number of delegates is being strictly limited, so that the hall in Indianapolis may not be asked to accommodate more than the seven thousand it usually seats.

The G. W. group of Student Volunteers is the baby of the Middle Atlantic States, as it is less than a year old. Those expected to go from G. W. are Edith Petrie, Dr. Pak Chue Chan, of the Medical School, and Agnes Wilson, of the Columbian College.

Those interested are requested to drop a card to M. R. Malone, care of the office.

LEWIS ADDRESSES MASONS

President William Mather Lewis addressed the meeting of the Anchor Club in the Gavel Club rooms, 719-21 Thirteenth Street N. W., on November 19, 1923.

PYRAMID MEETING POSTPONED

Pyramid Honor society meeting announced for December 2 has been postponed to December 9. At this time it is expected that the fall elections will be held.

Compiles Scrap Book.

Miss Rae Block, secretary to the Director of Student Activities, has compiled an interesting scrap book containing pictures and clippings of articles about G. W. U.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS CHAPEL

Dr. Robert Griggs to Give Illustrated Lecture. Harpist to Render Selections

In addition to the excellent music that Robert Lawrence has developed in the chapel, more interesting features are to be added in the form of short addresses by prominent men, according to plans announced by President Lewis. Some specialty for each chapel is the program.

Friday, Dr. Robert F. Griggs, discoverer of the valley of Ten Thousand Smokes, will give an illustrated lecture. At the same chapel, Elizabeth Keyes, harpist, will render selections. Eugene Adams, of Johnson and Adams, will give a vocational guidance talk on "Insurance" Monday, November 26.

Yesterday, Dr. William S. Abernethy, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, was the chapel speaker.

It is felt by those in charge that more students should take advantage of the inspirational service that one receives from these gatherings. Excellent music and short, pointed speeches make up a half hour of interest and enjoyment.

HONOR SOCIETIES OFFER CUPS FOR TAX PLEDGES

Gate and Key and Hour Glass, honor societies, have offered silver cups for the teams obtaining the greatest number of pledge signers.

The Gate and Key cup is to be given to the organization having 100 per cent tax signers and obtaining the most signers in the next few weeks.

The Hour Glass cup will go to the unorganized group or team obtaining the most pledge signers.

A great deal of activity has been displayed by the different groups. The closing date of the contest will be announced later.

Only 1,100 Have Signed Tax.

Only 1,160 have signed the Student Activity Pledge, according to the latest figures given by Bryan Morse, director of Student Activities.

BLUM SPEAKS WEDNESDAY TO THE CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Treasurer Will Be Elected; Chapter of Chemical Engineers Will Be Formed

Dr. W. Blum, of the Bureau of Standards, will speak at the next meeting of the G. W. U. Chemical Society, November 21, at 8 p. m., on "Researches in Electroplating." A treasurer will be elected at the meeting, and a student chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers will be formed. The chapter will not doubt be open to both chemists and chemical engineers.

All those wishing to give student papers during the year and compete for the medal offered by the society should notify K. S. Markley, president of the organization, on or before November 21. Among those who will give student papers during the year will be Ray M. Hann, J. T. Berliner, J. H. Winkler, and Arthur Hartman.

A chemical mixer will probably be held in early December. The committee in charge of it will report at the meeting. The Chi Sigma Gamma sorority will furnish refreshments.

ALPHA KAPPA KAPPA STRUTS

The combination smoker-dance given by Alpha Kappa Kappa Medics at the Washington Club on November 2nd, will not be forgotten for a long time by those who attended this novel affair.

Among the prominent alumni present were: Dr. Oscar B. Hunter, Dr. Harry Ong, Dr. Tom Crisp, Dr. Ray Gwynn, and Major Clark of the U. S. Army Medical School.

Football Manager Reports.

Milton Ladd, manager of football, will make a report of the present season at the council meeting, November 20.

CHANGE FOOTBALL HOP DATE TO DECEMBER 7

Will Be Held At Rauscher's, and Music To Be By Meyer Davis.

GIVEN IN HONOR OF TEAM

Tickets on Sale at Offices of University—Price set at $3.50—To Limit Attendance.

Unforeseen conditions have made it necessary for Richard K. McPherson, chairman of the social committee of the Student Council, to change the date of the football hop from Friday, December 14, to Friday, December 7. The first big event on the social calendar of the University will be held at Rauscher's, Connecticut Avenue and L Street, as originally announced. Meyer Davis will furnish the music.

Some time during the evening letters will be awarded to the football men, those who have worked hard for the University and in whose honor the grand hop is being given.

The members to serve on the social committee are expected to be announced shortly by the chairman. Tickets for the hop of hops will be on sale this week at the treasurer's office, 2033 G Street; Law School office, Fifteenth and K Streets; Medical School office, 1335 H Street; and the office of the director of student activities, 728 Twentieth Street. They may also be obtained from members of the student council. The price has been set at the attractive figure of $3.50.

To afford more enjoyment for those who attend, the committee in charge has decided to limit the sale of tickets to 250 couples. For this reason, all those contemplating attending—and who isn't—are urged to buy early and eliminate the possibility of being disappointed.

MANAGEMENT EXPERT TO ADDRESS ENGINEERS

Efficiency Methods Used in 1,600 Factories to Be Explained by Illustrated Lecture.

Whitney S. Powers, of Miller, Franklin, Basset & Company, of New York, will give a lecture, illustrated with lantern slides, on the "Control of Production," to the Engineering Society, Tuesday, November 20. The meeting will be held in the chapel of Lisner Hall and will start at 8 p. m. Supper for members of the society will be served in the Rabbit Hole at 7.15, by members of Sphinx Honor Society.

The speaker has been lecturing throughout the East for the last few months, numbering among his audiences the foremost engineering schools, the Chambers of Commerce of several cities, and quite a number of local chapters of national societies of industrial engineers. He has been in over one hundred factories for the purpose of increasing the efficiency of management.

Reducing waste in management and increasing production, one of the big engineering problems of the day, is the theme of Whitney Power's lectures. The Control of Production is an illustrated story of how a plant increased its production 62 per cent and reduced its nonproductive labor from 499 to 402 by properly planning its work in the factory.

In the lecture, one is carried from the origin of an order through to the delivery of that order. In every case the reason each step was taken is clearly shown. The points discussed in the lecture have been drawn from a multitude of experiences and are the result of methods introduced in over 1,600 factories.

BREAK GROUND FOR NEW BUILDING IN DECEMBER

Ground for the new building to be erected on 21st street will be broken during the early part of December. The event will be marked with a formal ceremony in which members of the board of trustees, members of the faculty and the student body will participate.

EXAM. FOR GUARD CANDIDATES

Candidates for Coast Guard battery D. will report Wednesday, November 21 in Lisner Hall for physical examination.

SPEAKS ON EDUCATION

Thursday, November 22, President Lewis will speak at Portsmouth, Va., at the celebration of Education week.

INVITES TO TEA DANCE

Pi Beta Phi will be hostesses at a tea dance on Thanksgiving Day, November 29, at the Powhatan Hotel, from 5 to 8 o'clock. The faculty and entire student body are cordially invited.

MORSE PLEDGES G. W. SUPPORT TO GLEE CLUB

Saunders Elected President—Fly, Manager—Plan Dual Concert with Girl's Organization.

The G. W. U. Male Glee Club held its elections for the year at the meeting on Thursday night. Director of Student Activities, Bryan Morse, addressed the signers, and Vocal Director, Mueller, outlined the plans for the coming year.

The officers selected were: President, R. N. Saunders; manager, W. J. Fly; secretary, J. G. Ewing; treasurer, R. N. Marquis. The duties of the manager consist of arranging all details for rehearsals, and in conjunction with the president and Director Mueller, securing engagements for public concerts.

Bryan Morse gave a talk on the possibilities of the club, and stated that President Lewis felt a keen interest in vocal organizations and wanted to put them on an equal footing with all other recognized school activities. To this end a constitution and set of by-laws will be drawn up and presented at the next meeting. He also emphasized the fact that the Glee Club can do much in assisting with the endowment drive by placing the University before the public through public appearances. The first concert has been arranged and will be given at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club, to be held at the City Club about December first.

One of the features of the year will be a dual concert to be given with the Girl's Glee Club, and it is expected that many novel features will be planned as the club develops.

Many new men tried out for the club this year, and from the group thirty-five good singers have been selected by Director Mueller. The prospects for the year seem the brightest in the history of the organization.

S. A. E. THANKSGIVING DANCE WILL BE FORMAL

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon tea dance, set for Thanksgiving Day, 6 to 8 p. m., has been changed to a formal dance, beginning 9 p. m., the same evening, to which all other fraternities are invited. Conflicting dates caused the change in plans.

ONE MILLION TO BE GOAL OF BIG ENDOWMENT DRIVE

Claude W. Owen, '08, is Chairman of National Committee—Country Will Be Divided

One million dollars is the goal set for the endowment drive, which will start February 1 and last throughout the month. This sum will help realize the new buildings which has long been the dream of G. W. students.

The country will be divided into ten geographical divisions, over each of which will be a superintendent. Not all of the divisional superintendents have been designated, however. Claude W. Owen, of the Law Class of 1908, is chairman of the national executive committee, and Mrs. James C. Frazer, chairman of the national women's committee.

FIRST $500 PRESENTED

Columbian Women's check for $500 presented to President Lewis on Thursday, November 15 was the first sum contributed by an organization toward the $1,000,000 endowment and building fund. Many other organizations have pledged money and are expected to make payments shortly.

Urges Picture Taking.

Seniors, members of fraternities and organizations, are urged by the Cherry Tree management to have their pictures taken now at Edmonston Studio, 610 Thirteenth Street.

Speaks to Chamber of Commerce

Tonight President Lewis will address the Washington Chamber of Commerce.

WILBUR PORTRAIT IS PRESENTED TO G. W. U.

Meryman's Classic Likeness Now In the University Collection.

PORTRAIT IS SYMBOLIC

Reception Held Under Direction of Dr. Brigham, Head of Portrait Committee.

The portrait of Dean William Allen Wilbur, by Richard Meryman, Washington artist, was presented to the University last Saturday afternoon at a reception under the auspices of the Portrait Committee. Two hundred and more of the Dean's friends gathered in the chapel of Lisner Hall to witness the exercises incident to the actual unveiling and to honor him who holds so unique a place in the reverence and respect of all with whom he comes in contact.

The portrait, a beautiful affair, shows Dean Wilbur, in academic robes, seated at a table holding a copy of his English rhetoric. A background, merged with the main figure, yet so portrayed as to give a distant, panoramic effect, represents two ships, sailing vessels, bound in opposite directions and about to pass. The coloring in the portrait is beautiful, the white of the sails and the feather-edges of the waves blending with the blue of the sky; and the whole merging with felicitous harmony with the figure in the foreground.

The portrait represents more than a mere likeness or a reproduction of the outward characteristics of Dean Wilbur. It is an interpretation of those spiritual qualities of justice and kindness and fairness, the love of truth, of God and man, that are so essentially a part of him. There is expressed, in actual symbols, the ship, his deep religious convictions and his undying heritage from his ancestors, men who went down to the sea in ships.

Of this heritage there is a story in Dean Wilbur's "Maritime Sketches of Mystic and Noank," telling of the meeting of the ships of his father and his brother, the one bound to and the other from, San Francisco, whose courses touched only at one point off Cape Horn. The brothers prayed their ships might pass in daylight, that they might greet one another. And so it was that their prayers were answered and for a few moments one morning, each hailed the other, and passed on.

That each felt such meeting was an act of Divine significance is attested by the entries in their journals that day. From the log of Captain John P. Wilbur, Dean Wilbur's father, August 21, 1874: "It is all clear now, nothing comes by chance. The same watchful eye that marks the sparrows when they fall, marks the progress of two ships and steers them together on this great ocean mid the darkness of the night. . . . We had time to see and to pass a few kind words of greeting. . . . Then we separate, he sails one way and we the other. So we meet on life's voyage and so we part. . . . I trust that by and by we shall all safely reach that haven of rest from which there shall be no more going out—no more parting in the great Home on High, for there shall be no more sea. . . ."

Elmer Louis Kayser, secretary of the University, presided at the exercises and introduced the speakers. Miss Elizabeth Peet, an alumnae of George Washington, who made the presentation, and President Lewis, who accepted the portrait for the school. Miss Jane-Lewis Elizabeth Parks, five-year-old granddaughter of Dean Wilbur, unveiled the picture. Two solos and instrumental music were offered, and tea was served under the auspices of the Columbian Women.

The arrangement of the ceremony was directed by Dr. Gertrude Richardson Brigham, chairman of the Portrait Committee.

More Signers Necessary.

1,400 more signers to the activity tax is necessary before the Ghost will walk again, is the opinion of University authorities.

Cheer Leaders Needed.

Applications for cheer leaders should be given to C. Melville Walker, chairman of the athletic committee of the council.

BEAT 'EM AGAIN.

"Beat 'em again, G. W.," is the battle cry that the football warriors have adopted in their preparation for the annual Catholic University game. Hard workouts are taking place daily, the coaches and men doing their best to repeat last year's win.

The University can count on the team doing its utmost Thanksgiving Day. It's up to the student body to do as well. To do this, at least 2,000 students must be in the stands, cheering lustily. A band, orchestra, and cheer leaders will also aid greatly in furnishing the proper spirit and support.

Another thing that would add to the effect would be to have all of the frosh present wearing their caps. Sophs, here's the chance to redeem yourselves for allowing the first-year class to violate your proclamation. Make the frosh wear their caps, parade around the field before the game, and sit together during the contest.

It is up to the entire student body to show the team that the University is supporting it. The only way this can be done is by having 2,000 students, a band, and a big frosh parade at the Central Stadium Thanksgiving afternoon.

GLEE CLUB.

George Washington University Glee Club, although practically in its infancy, has grown in such proportion that it is now a recognized leading organization in the field of student activities.

This year the Glee Club has extended its activities by adding a special instrumental section to the chorus.

Through its activities the University can expect great benefits, especially in the campaign now being conducted for an endowment fund.

Having already introduced itself, with great success, to many civic and other organizations in Washington, the Glee Club is planning this year to add to its program by giving concerts in several cities of the nearby states. They should be encouraged in their new program; in behalf of the endowment campaign, we want the people of Washington to know about the University, and it is the best medium through which the uninterested public can be reached.

Athletics is limited to a certain collegiate following. Other organizations, with possibly a few exceptions, are devoted to university life and make their public the college student.

The Glee Club is different. It appeals to all: the collegiate following, the student, and the public. It covers two important fields of interest to the University, the one of increasing the interest of the student body and the other of creating an interest in the public for George Washington University.

This organization, constituting so important a factor in the curriculum of the college activities, should be aided and encouraged by the student body, that it may fulfill its part of the obligation in the promotion of George Washington University over the entire nation.

ATTEND CHAPEL.

Chapel—what does it mean to you? Do you have the same conception of chapel that is sometimes prevalent among college students? Do you think it is some sort of boresome ordeal that must be sat through simply because you have been asked to attend? If so, you are all wrong.

Not so with the chapel at George Washington. Inaugurated on the basis that such things should arouse an interest and enthusiasm in the student, chapel on Monday and Friday at 12.20 offers as much worthwhile enjoyment in twenty minutes as you could find anywhere.

Subjects of vital interest to all of us are discussed each week by some prominent persons. Community Song Director Robert Lawrence leads you in some of the most delightful old songs you ever heard. Then, too, each week there is some musician, a master in his art, who entertains you for a time.

Classes are compulsory, in a sense, but attendance at chapel is purely voluntary. Chapel is planned to make you want to come—and it does.

Go Friday, and hear one of the finest harpists in this section of the country, who has been engaged by the school to play for you. Go Friday, and you will not miss another.

ENOSINIAN SOCIETY MEETS TO ADMIT NEW MEMBERS

At the last meeting of the Enosinian Society the chief business was the admission of new members. Those admitted and the titles of the papers which they read are: Mildred Murray, "An Appreciation of Hugh Walpole"; Alvin G. McNish, "Poems"; Anne Hor, "Amateur Observations Upon English Folk Song"; Frances C. Wolff, "Yvonne"; Lyne Smith, "The Elusiveness of the Week End."

The president of the society strongly recommended to those present N. B. Fagin's recently published book, "Short Story Writing—An Art or a Trade?" terming it an intelligent consideration of the American short story.

The next meeting of the society will be held Monday, November 19, at 8.15 p. m. Applicants for membership will be received and their papers considered. The modern novel will be the general topic for discussion.

DEBATE LEAGUE QUESTION

"Recognition of collective bargaining and a ten per cent increase in wages were gained by the Pinchot settlement," hammered home Henry A. Nickson on the negative of "Resolved, that Governor Pinchot's settlement was not conducive to a permanent settlement of the coal problem," the discussion held by the Columbian Debating Society, November 16. S. M. Watson, of the affirmative, received first speaking honors, and second place fell to H. A. Nickson. The negative got a two to one decision.

"Resolved, that the League of Nations, as an efficient agency, received its death blow from the action of Italy in Corfu," is the subject for the November 23 meeting. This will be held at 8 p. m. in the alumni room of the Law School.

SIGMA KAPPAS ENTERTAIN

Patronesses of Sigma Kappa entertained at luncheon last Saturday at the Cosmos Club.

Hostesses were Mrs. Wm. M. Lewis, Mrs. John T. Erwin, Miss Alice Henning, Mrs. Paul Bartsch, Mrs. Frank Edgington, Mrs. Alvin Miller, Mrs. Otto Weerhof, Mrs. Mitchell Carroll, Mrs. DeWitt Croissant, and Mrs. Otis S. Swett.

Active sorority girls present were Isabella Brown, Anita McCord, Frances Fisher, Mary A. Brown, Catherine Mathews, Ruth Major, Ellen Bowker, M. Gladys Barrow, Eleanor McMurchy, Margaret Ramsey, Marion Bailey, Lois Hines, Hazel Davis, Louise Ford, Maxine Rolle, Winifred Michaelson, Hazel Bayne, Dorothy Bartley, and Eva Lewis.

Tough? Wow!

Cannibal Woman: "Have you seen anything of my husband?"
Cannibal Chief: "Not since dinner."

A Tampa (Fla.) tobacco company opens a circular letter with this momentous question: "If Henry Ford is elected President, will he be a flivver or a Lincoln?"

PLANS FOR YEAR MADE AT MEETING OF SPANISH CLUB

At the most enthusiastic meeting held in recent years, the Spanish Club elected the following officers last Thursday night: L. G. Montague, president; Eleanor McMurchy, vice president; Agnes Regan, secretary; and C. M. Cook, treasurer.

There were sixty-five members present, and interesting talks were made by Prof. H. G. Doyle and A. C. Vasquez. Plans were discussed for the coming year. Frequent meetings will be held, at which addresses will be made by members of the diplomatic corps, and in the spring the club will give a Spanish play. This will be directed by A. C. Vasquez. Dancing is also included as an attractive feature of the year's program.

The club will meet again on November 22 in building 12, room 5. Members do not necessarily have to speak Spanish; anyone interested is invited to join. The dues are one dollar a year.

TO SELL G. W. CALENDARS

George Washington University calendar for 1924, containing pictures of the athletic teams and inauguration events have been ordered and will be placed on sale the early part of December.

Twelve handsome pictures and an attractive leather binding, with the official G. W. seal embossed on the cover, makes the calendar a pleasing as well as a practical Christmas gift.

The calendars, which will sell for one dollar, will be placed on sale at the office of the Law and Medical Schools, treasurer's office, and the office of the Director of Student Activities.

GATE AND KEY PROMOTES COOPERATION OF FRATS

The Gate and Key, honorary organization, is composed of those upper class students who have excelled in scholastic, sports, and other activities. It believes that the University can best be benefited and improved through the cooperation of the different fraternities with one another and with other organizations in the school.

It was organized in 1922. Members are elected and membership restricted to those whose qualifications are highest.

The Distinction of Unusual Style

THAT type of suit which has always been sought after by college men and until recently was obtainable only in New York is now available in Famous DUNSHIRE Clothing.

Those smart little style details which the well dressed college man recognizes, and which he demands, are found in these clothes. There is the soft, free drape of the coat front; the wide, typically English trousers; there is the graceful "lift" of the lapel and collar—there are all those smart details which have made the college man's clothes the stylist's criterion.

Once worn always worn—you know the suit!

HATCHETITES BEATEN BY DELAWARE 19-7

Lawrence Leeb, Playing at Center,
Suffers Broken Leg—G. W.
Scores With Pass.

Using a versatile aerial attack, George Washington forced the University of Delaware the entire route Saturday at Newark, but were beaten 19 to 7. Considerable ground was gained by the locals by the air route, only to find the Blue Hen tighten up when their goal was threatened.

A bad break gave the Delaware team their first score when a Hatchetite kick was blocked and recovered by Williams for a touchdown in the opening period. This same Williams was the main cog in the enemies' attack, his passes and line plunging gaining heavily for Delaware.

E. Lawrence Leeb, starting his first game at center for George Washington, had the misfortune to break his leg in the first half. Leeb has been a faithful member of the squad, both last year and this, and was shaping up as an excellent player when the regrettable accident occurred.

George Washington's score came as the result of a heavy air raid in the final period, which the Delaware team were unable to stop. Laux carried the ball over the last white line and "Bo" Lamar kicked goal. Lamar and McLain put up excellent games for G. W., while Guy Hottle and Bevo Miller were bulwarks of the line.

Beaten by Roanoke.

Completing 25 out of about 30 attempted forward passes and not scoring was the record of the Hatchetites at Roanoke, Va., when they were handed a 33-0 knockout drop, in the Armistice Day battle. This record is very unique in itself—it being unusual that a college team completes such an excellent percentage of passes.

The locals were the victims of some hard breaks. A blocked kick, which was converted into a touchdown in the early minutes of play, was quite disheartening. Capt. V. James Ptk played spectacularly for the Quigleyites, while the Virginian's found Guy Hottle a stumbling block to line plays.

CALLS OUT TRACK MEN

Candidates for the track team will meet Friday, November 23, at 8 o'clock, in Lisner Hall. Coach Tom Proby urges all men interested to attend. Several interesting meets, both indoor and outdoor, are being arranged by manager Jack Reynolds.

GREEKS START ANNUAL BASKETBALL SERIES

Games to be Played at Coliseum. Two Cups to be Awarded Winner of the campaign.

The annual Greek War is about to burst forth again when the Interfraternity Association of George Washington University stage the usual basketball series. At the last meeting of the Association the local Frats were divided into the following leagues and the schedule approved:

Group I.

Kappa Sigma
Theta Delta Chi
Sigma Nu
Sigma Phi Epsilon
Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Group II.

Wandering Greeks
Kappa Alpha
Phi Sigma Kappa
Delta Tau Delta
Sigma Chi

The games will be staged at the Coliseum, 9th Street and Pennsylvania Ave., through the courtesy of the Varsity Basketball Manager. They will be played on Monday and Friday evenings. Each team will play each team once, the winners of group one to play the winners of group two on a subsequent date to be announced later. A handsome basketball trophy will be awarded, which will have the name of the Fraternity winning it each year inscribed upon it, and which will ultimately become the property of that Fraternity winning it three times. An additional cup has been awarded by the Sport Mart, to be given into the permanent possession of the winning team of this year's tournament.

The Committee in charge of the tournament consists of David M. Laux and Edwin S. Bettelheim Jr. The schedule follows:

November 16th.

Kappa Sigma vs. Theta Delta Chi.
Wandering Greeks vs. Kappa Alpha.

November 19th.

Sigma Nu vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon.
Phi Sigma Kappa vs. Delta Tau Delta.

November 23rd.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Kappa Sigma.

"BEAT 'EM AGAIN," SLOGAN FOR C. U. GAME

Quigleyites Determined to Even Count,
Play Johns Hopkins, Saturday,
November 24.

Beat 'em again, is the slogan of the Quigleyites, as they prepare for the annual contest with Catholic University, Thanksgiving Day, at the Central Stadium. These games, which have become the climax battle for each university, were resumed in 1920. The Hatchetites have lost two and won a game from the Brooklanders, so that this year the Buff and Blue are out to even the count.

In 1920, G. W. was only beaten by a thrilling 95-yard run by Bobby Denault, a speedy C. U. back, who intercepted an unlucky Hatchetite pass. Final score, 13-0.

The next year the Buff and Blue scored first and things looked bright for the home boys, but bad breaks and overconfidence spelled defeat, 19-6.

Then the cloud lifted, and last year things started with a bang with Charlie O'Keefe's 50-yard dash, and G. W. took home the pigskin, 14-7.

One more battle intervenes before the annual contest, but the Quigleyites are pointing for the Brooklanders. Next Saturday, Johns Hopkins are scheduled to meet the Quigleyites on the Baltimore Homewood Field. The Monumental City boys have a strong team, and the Hatchetites are in for a merry battle.

FRESHMAN ORCHESTRA IS MONTH OLD, BUT THRIVING

William S. Callahan is First Violin and Leader; Bunch Has Played Quite Often

Among G. W. U's organizations the Freshman orchestra stands unique. Made up entirely of members of the Freshman class in less than a month it has become one of the best known and most active groups of students in the university. William S. Callahan, leader and violinist, is a musician of real talent and long experience. Vincent Stubbs, cornetist, has played for two years in a large concert band. David Buchalter, saxophone, is a well known musician of Washington, having played in numerous local orchestras. "Dave" doubles on the violin. Joseph Caples, trombone, has played with Innes Band of Denver and the Kemper Military School concert band. W. Jefferies Chearning, Jr., drums, has played with the Fredericksburg School of Music orchestra and the Syncopators of Fredericksburg, Va. Eunice O'Connor, piano, is a mean ivory pounder. Lastly, the hustling manager and second violinist, Sherman E. Johnson is well known in journalistic circles. The orchestra has played for the Frosh-Junior Reception, the Free Lance Club, the Frosh Mixer, the recent luncheon to President Lewis at the University Club and other school functions.

START HOCKEY SQUAD

Twenty-four girls reported at the first practice of the Hockey Team on the North Ellipse, Friday afternoon, November 16.

The Hockey sticks are furnished by the University. Practice is held every Tuesday, Friday, and Saturday afternoons, at 2 o'clock, in the Ellipse. Plans are being made to have class teams, which, it is felt, would add a great deal to the fun of the recently organized sport. It is hoped that the services of a coach may be secured.

ENGINEERING SMOKER IS POSTPONED UNTIL DEC. 6

President J. H. Winkler of the Engineering Society has announced that the big smoker and meeting which was scheduled to take place on Thursday, November 29th, in the chapel, has been changed to take place on Thursday, Dec. 6th on account of the scheduled meeting coming on Thanksgiving Day. This meeting will be one of the high lights of the G. W. engineers for the year and is expected to inaugurate an era for a greater society.

There will be snappy talks by the members and a radio program by the Chesapeake and Potomac Co. Supper will be served at a place to be announced later. Every one is urged to come out to this meeting and start off the new year with a bang.

ORGANIZE FENCING TEAM

Phoebe Knappen was chosen manager of the recently organized girl's fencing team at the first meeting, Wednesday, November 14. It was decided to accept the Fencing Studio, at 1531 K Street, which is to furnish the instructor, equipment, and gym at a cost of $3 per month per girl for a class of sixteen.

The days for practice were set for Tuesday at 2.15 o'clock and Saturday at 1 at the studio for the period of one hour. It is necessary to sign up for a period of five months, which includes the Christmas holidays, but not exam week. The first practice will be held on Tuesday, December 4, at 2.15.

All girls who intend to go out for fencing have been requested to signify their intention by paying the first month's dues to Phoebe Knappen as soon as possible.

INTERFRAT SMOKER WILL BE HELD NOVEMBER 27TH

The annual Interfraternity Smoker is scheduled to be held at the Sigma Phi Epsilon house Tuesday, November 27th.

This get-together meeting of all Greek letter men has for its main theme this year the promoting of university spirit for the George Washington-Catholic University football game, which is to be fought out Thanksgiving Day.

Excellent entertainment is promised by those in charge to Greeks, wandering and at home, who attend the smoker.

TO ELECT CHEER LEADERS

Three cheer leaders for the Catholic University-George Washington game are to be appointed by the Student Council at the next meeting, November 20. Candidates for these positions must send in their applications, signed by the director of Student Activities, to C. Melville Walker, 1810 Connecticut Avenue.

G. W. students are asked to send in yells full of life and college spirit, especially those who are trying for the positions of cheer leaders, to C. Melville Walker. A rally will be held at the Interfraternity Smoker, November 27, to try out the new yells. Copies will be furnished to the students.

MATCHES BEING ARRANGED FOR G. W. RIFLE SQUAD

Practice resumed at Marine Barracks Most of Last Year's Champion Team Back

Rifle team is again actively at work practicing on the indoor rifle range at the Marine Barracks, under the leadership of Walter R. Stokes as captain, ably assisted by his brother Ralph Stokes, as coach.

The University's rifle squad has the use of the Marine Barracks' indoor rifle range every Friday and Saturday evenings from about seven until eleven o'clock, p. m. Almost all of last year's strong team is back in harness, and augmenting them are a number of other candidates.

Under the leadership of Yale and Columbia authorities, a shouldered to shoulder intercollegiate indoor rifle match is being arranged, to be held sometime in January in one of the large armories in New York City. Competition for places on the team which will represent George Washington already promises to be keen.

George Washington will also attempt to arrange a shoulder to shoulder match in Philadelphia sometime in March, between University of Pennsylvania, Drexel Institute and itself.

ELECT BEE WOODFORD BASKETBALL CAPTAIN

Beatrice Woodford was elected captain of the basketball team at the first meeting Monday, and details for the sport are practically completed. Practice will not start until December 3. The Coliseum will probably be available for day practice, and Central High School at night.

Dean Rose hopes to obtain the Y. W. C. A. pool for the use of girls interested in swimming. Daisy Robison, the manager, plans to have a coach once a week, to instruct beginners.

OFFERS FRENCH PRIZE

Alpha Pi chapter of Alpha Delta Pi has offered an annual prize of $10, to be awarded to the student doing the best work in third-year French, according to announcement of Dean Geo. N. Henning.
